Experience, Excel and Enjoy

Dear Parents and Carers

On Sunday 3rd January we had to take the difficult decision to move to remote learning between 5th and 8th January 2021 initially.

Pinehurst Primary School will be open to Key Worker and Vulnerable children only during this period.

Who is eligible?

The list of Key Workers is:

Social workers, care workers, health and social care staff and those required to maintain the sector

Teachers, specialist education professionals and nursery staff

Staff essential to the operation of the justice system

Staff involved in the management of the deceased

Administrative staff in local government essential to the delivery of the COVID-19 response

Staff delivering essential public services such as payment of benefits

Staff involved in the distribution of food or other key goods

Police and police support staff

Fire and rescue staff and support staff

Transport workers

Utilities workers

Probation staff

IT staff necessary to support COVID-19 response

Payment providers

Waste disposal service presumably including refuse collection

In addition, other workers described include:

Armed forces personnel

MoD civilian staff and contractors

National Crime Agency

Border security

National security staff

Religions and charity staff

Journalists and broadcasters

Please note that for Key Workers it is one parent who needs to be in this role. Parents working in these sectors may be asked to provide proof from their employer that they are eligible.

The list of Vulnerable children is:

A child who:

Has an Education Health and Care Plan (EHCP)

Has a Social Worker under Child Protection or Child in Need

Is a Looked After Child (LAC)

Has been identified as otherwise vulnerable by educational providers or local authorities

If you are eligible and wish to take up a place at school please call to inform us and we will then be able to provide further information on start and finish times and gates for Tuesday 5th January – Friday 8th January.

A decision on our opening arrangements for the week beginning 11th January will be made on Thursday 7th January.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Take care, keep safe and stay well.

Kind regards

Miss K Morris
Headteacher
